

Cat Bordhi's 2019 Island Knitting Retreats

Rejuvenation, creative learning, and friendship

I've been holding knitting retreats near my home on San Juan Island, Washington for many years. Many people return again and again, and we all love to welcome newcomers. Our islands are a natural paradise, about a 100 mile drive north of Seattle and an hour-and-a-half ferry ride west through shimmering emerald waters. Along the way you might see whales, dolphins, seals, or eagles. Retreat participants fall in love with the islands, as I did so long ago, and several loved it so much they've moved here.

Spring sessions: March 31 -April 5 or April 7-12

Fall sessions: Oct 6-11 or Oct 13-18

You'll arrive Sunday afternoon and depart Friday morning, giving us four complete days together. One day we'll spend a few hours riding our inter-island ferry (just steps from our hotel), skimming along the water from island to island and enjoying spectacular scenery as we knit. And all week long you'll revel in the beauty that surrounds you, our luxurious accommodations, our serene gathering space, and the colorful meals our legendary chef Deb Nolan prepares. Sunday and Friday are travel days, so no activities are scheduled on those days.

I teach every morning, leaving afternoons free for explorations. Our home, the Island Inn at 123 West, faces the marina, with shops, the Whale Museum, coffee houses, bookstores, art galleries, bakeries, and our local yarn shop, Island Wools, all within a few minutes' walk. One afternoon Island Fibers from neighboring Lopez Island sets up shop at the Inn. You can nap, join a whale-watching tour, wander the docks and imagine life aboard the boats, or knit alongside a new or old friend. Or you can drive to South Beach to fly kites (I have some to loan) or collect agates, and may see foxes like the one you see here, rabbits, and eagles. Each evening after dinner, I review our lessons, and then spin tales from the knitting world as we wind down for the night.

I love teaching projects that share elements of my ongoing design work. In 2018, the Spring and Fall Retreats included previews from my ebook, Cat's Family of Fingerless Mitts (published in November, 2018). By popular demand, both 2019 Spring Retreats will focus on footwear, using my ebook, Cat's Sweet Tomato Heel Socks. It is too soon to say what my 2019 Fall Retreats will focus on, but I promise the projects will be tantalizing. And I always love to share my bag of tricks—solutions to common knitting challenges.

The retreats anchor a strong sense of community and caring, and are deeply relaxing. We will spend some time each day knitting in communal silence, letting the deep wellspring of tranquillity that lies within knitting rise and saturate us as our hands move in quiet harmony with needles and yarn. One recent knitter reflected: “What a magical and grace-filled time we shared. I’m so thankful that you made and held that space for us.”

Chef Deb is legendary amongst returnees.

Please see the information on the final page of this PDF.

Cost: The retreat fee is $500. The Inn includes breakfast, and Deb’s catered lunches and dinners are $245. Please see the Island Inn PDF for descriptions of lodging choices, which run from $135 for a single to $315 for a penthouse which can hold up to 5 friends. Lodging reservations are made directly with the Inn.

To register, email me at cat@catbordhi.com to ask if your preferred retreat has space. I’d love to share this heavenly island with you and spend time knitting and learning together. If you are new, you’ll find everyone delighted to welcome you to our week of happiness.

My heart and the island's heart await you, Cat

Traveling to Friday Harbor, San Juan Island

Mount Baker looms into view as the ferry passes Lopez Island. The well-lit boats are great for knitting and jigsaw puzzles, usually with several puzzles waiting for the next traveler to sit down and continue. Or you can walk laps inside or outside. I love our ferries.

Washington State Ferries

Sailing schedule and car reservations for Anacortes-Friday Harbor ferry: <http://www.wsdot.wa.gov/ferries>

Driving

If driving, remember that your ferry reservation is void if you are not through the ticket booth 30 minutes ahead of the scheduled sailing. It takes about 2 hours to drive directly from the airport to Anacortes, longer if there is traffic. For GPS, use 2100 Ferry Terminal Road, Anacortes. Once off the ferry, turn left, and look for the tall gray water tank with the numbers 123 on the side. We're right there.

Island Airporter

John Nash runs this shuttle between Friday Harbor and the Seattle-Tacoma Airport from Monday through Saturday. See www.islandairporter.com and call John at (360) 378-7438.

Bellair Charters Airporter Shuttle

This service offers 12 roundtrips daily between Seatac (Seattle-Tacoma Airport) and the Anacortes Ferry Terminal. Current schedules and rates are available at www.airporter.com/shuttle. Make sure to allow an hour between the scheduled arrival time of the shuttle and the ferry's departure, in case the shuttle runs into traffic.

Kenmore Air

KenmoreAir.com offers land and sea plane services. The sea planes land in the marina next to our hotel. Before making reservations, make sure to coordinate your arrival and departure from Seatac with Kenmore's schedule, allowing enough time to collect your baggage.

Deb is an instinctive, creative, and gifted chef who cooks as passionately as we knit.

Her sumptuous lunches and dinners have been delighting, inspiring, and nourishing our knitters for years. Deb's meals center around a colorful variety of seasonally fresh and locally grown produce, varied proteins (seafood, poultry, pork, and lamb), seasoned with fresh herbs and spices, beans and nuts, healthy grains, fresh breads, cheeses, olive oil, house made soups and salad dressings, and small decadent desserts.
