

Versatildes ~ an Infinite and Peaceful Wonderland for Knitters

A 3-hour workshop with Cat Bordhi

Vashon Island June 10th

$75

Description:

In one lively morning, Cat will teach you all you need to know to confidently knit anything in her versatile 117-page ebook, Versatildes: a New Landscape for Knitters. The book (students will receive a complimentary download in time for class) includes Cat's original stitch dictionary of about twenty reversible cable patterns as well as her technique for spontaneous "Let the River Carry You Cables." This carefree technique can be used to stream rivulets across any ribbed fabric, like a scarf, sweater, or blanket.

Location: THE COUNTRY STORE

The workshop will take place on June 10th at The Country Store on Vashon Island.
(Light refreshments/coffee will be served.)

The Country Store Address: 20211 Vashon Hwy SW, Vashon, WA 98070 (206)463-3655

Odds and Ends:

Please note that traffic to the Vashon Sheepdog Classic can cause ferry delays, Please be sure to catch an early boat to ensure you get to the workshop in time. There is ample parking at The Country Store and we will provide a free shuttle to all who wish to go to the sheepdog trials after the workshop.

Registration:

Your Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Payment and Registration must be received by April 1st to reserve your space--class limited to 24 students! No refunds after May 1st.

Check Payable to: Vashon Sheepdog Classic

Please mail your registration and check to:

VSDC/Workshop
9504 SW Quartermaster Drive.
Vashon, WA 98070

For more information please contact
Myra Willingham: ziggyonthecouch@gmail.com or call 206-463-6995

